

Slip off love

I want to hold on to scratch the bone
and pitch my eye
I want to want to want to feeling lost where I begin whisper as she sings

Slip off love
slip off love
slip off love

I wait to and watch too
sank the heart
and drag my feet
I wait to wait to wait to slow burning tracks one down makes a horse breathing strike

A body slow her strengthened flow the days just packed away it's spoken once
and two times heard to stay

She slides into another arm the moment she's lost I take out time
and never stop to move
